

Release & Indemnity Agreement

I understand that all precautions will be taken to prevent accidents. Simple first aid will be administered to all minor injuries, and parents or doctors will be called when necessary.

In the event that I cannot be reached to make arrangements for emergency medical attention at the time of illness or accident, I hereby authorize Christiane Michaelis to call 911 to provide my child urgent care. However, the The Dirty Easel, its directors and its employees can not be held liable for injuries to children while on the premises or otherwise in the care of staff members. The staff will do their best to ensure the safety of the children. In consideration of the acceptance of (our, my) child(ren) for The Dirty Easel Fine Arts Camps and the services rendered in connection with that program, (we, I) do hereby release The Dirty Easel, and their staff from all liability, and voluntarily waive any claims, demands, controversies, actions, or causes of action that (we, I) may in the future own or hold for property damages, personal injuries, or any other loss, whether known or unknown, against The Dirty Easel arising out of or in any way related to such child(ren) participation in The Dirty Easel Camp, included but not limited to, claims brought by or on behalf of such child(ren).

If this agreement is signed by only one person, the undersigned states upon oath that (he, she) is the managing conservator or guardian of the person or subject child(ren) and that (he, she) is solely responsible for payment of the expenses of care and support of such child, except for court order support payments made to the undersigned.
